THE YULETIDE SEASON.

A Bradford Christmas is always a Christmas of Good Cheer, the time when absent friends return to us, the time when gift-giving is appreciated by us, time when happiness is everywhere, and nobody feels disposed to be either a miser or a grouch.

Spending this Christmas will be done on a fairly liberal scale, and there is no particular reason why it should not be so. We have some good stores in this town. Their owners have grown up in our midst and have helped to make the community what it is—a good place to live.

They have a reputation for fair dealing, and they live up to the reputation they have earned.

The columns of this paper are advertising their goods extensively during the holiday trade, and many a choice bargain will be found among these ads. We ask you to read them, then look over the assortment of goods in the various business places.

The wise person never goes abroad for what can be had just as well at home. The sure way is always the safe way, and you are sure of what you get from the home dealer.

We extend a Merry Christmas to all.

panied by their wives, left last Thursday for Port St. Joe. Mr. Doe, who for many years was with the Connecticut Valley
